About the Author, David Michael Curtis (1974-Present)

I am a sinner saved by God's grace. I have been baptized, and I confess that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. I trust in Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of my sins and the gift of eternal life.

I was born in Roseburg, Oregon. I became a Christian at age 19 in 1993. Over the next seven years, I wore out the bindings of eleven KJV Bibles. Using my own money, I conducted my first evangelistic crusade in 1999. I taught the Bible on the radio five days a week on K.O.R.E. Springfield, OR (2000-2002). I sold KJV Bibles and children's character-building books door to door in Washington, Oregon, California, Texas, Kansas, Georgia, Tennessee, and New York (1999-2007).

I was a volunteer chaplain for a maximum-security prison in Northern California (2005-2007). Since 2001, I have owned/managed 75+ Christian websites. From 2008 to 2010, I was the General Manager for Harvestime Books (an international Christian publishing house). I have also served the church as an elder, a new believer's class teacher, and a vacation Bible school teacher.

A Helpful Illustration Describing this Topical Bible Study eBook

The tallest trees in the world are the Redwoods in Northern California. The Redwoods share a single network of roots; this root system connects all the Redwoods trees. This means the Redwoods Forest is also the largest single-living organism in the world.

Imagine that each doctrine of the Bible is a giant Redwood tree supported by 30-40 roots (Bible verses). Examine the neighboring doctrines that share a root system (Bible verses) with that doctrine. Understand that under its surface, all the doctrines are connected by one massive root system within the Bible. My books show how the various doctrines interconnect and share the same roots, supporting and depending on each other.

My books use the Bible as its own interpreter, providing all the verses on whichever doctrine is being studied, topically arranged, without commentary. Christ is the only Teacher you need. He promised that you would know the truth, and the truth would set you free.

Cherubim

Form and appearance of.

Ezekiel 1:5-11 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. 6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings. 7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass. 8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings. ...

Ezekiel 1:13-14 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. 14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

Animated by the Spirit of God.

Ezekiel 1:12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

Ezekiel 1:20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 10:9-11 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the Cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone. 10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. 11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

Ezekiel 10:16-17 And when the Cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the Cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them. 17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

The glory of God exhibited upon.

Ezekiel 1:26-28 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. 27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about. 28 As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of Rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. My Theory: Why Satan Rebelled in Heaven

When men write a textbook, they do so in a systematic way, with a chapter for each topic. The Bible, however, is not a textbook. It is a rich tapestry of microdata, meticulously scattered throughout its pages. This microdata, as demonstrated in Paul's writings, where he may comment on 3-4 different things in a single verse, requires a thorough and meticulous analysis to unearth its treasures. When I read a book like Romans, I meticulously search for the short phrases that Paul makes throughout the epistle, leaving no stone unturned in my quest for a comprehensive understanding.

If a man had made the Bible, he would have a chapter on the Angel of the Lord and another chapter explaining who Michael the Archangel is, much like I have done in this book. But the Bible is not a textbook. In making this book, I meticulously compiled every instance of the Angel of the Lord into a simple-to-follow single chapter, arranging them in a way that highlights their profound significance and intricate connections. The Angel of the Lord, a figure of immense importance, is presented in a way that aids in understanding its character and role, a role of great weight in the theory. The Angel of the Lord is not just a character but God Himself.

In this chapter, I will tell a story and humbly lay it before you, calling it a theory. When tested against my conscience, I can stand by it and believe it may have been what had actually happened in Heaven because it aligns with all the microdata we have in the Bible on the topics it involves. This belief fuels my passion for this theory and my commitment to its exploration, reinforcing its authenticity.

Let's begin by reviewing some facts.

1. Christ pre-existed his birth in Bethlehem.
2. Christ was first called Jesus at his birth.
3. Jesus was not his name in eternity past.
4. Jesus had a different name before being born.
5. In Revelation, Jesus says, that he will be given a new name.
6. Jesus will not be his name in eternity future.
7. Both the Messiah and Michael are called Prince.
8. A prince is an heir to the throne.
9. Jesus is God's only begotten son, and heir to God's throne.
10. Both Jesus and Michael have the title "Captain of the Host in heaven."
11. The "Angel of the Lord" and "Captain of the Host in heaven" is Jehovah God Himself.
12. Created angels are not to be worshipped.
13. Abraham, Jacob, Moses, and Joshua worshipped the "Angel of the Lord" and the "Captain of the Host in heaven."
14. Jesus was worshipped.
15. Angels worship Jesus.
16. Jesus leads the armies of Heaven at his second coming.
17. Christ is the resurrection and the life.

18. Michael resurrected Moses.

Jehovah's Witnesses' False View of Michael the Archangel

Jehovah's Witnesses teach that Jesus is Michael the Archangel. However, their view of this is a heresy. Why? Jehovah's Witnesses teach that Jesus Christ, Michael the Archangel, was created. Christ did not exist eternally in the past but came into existence at his creation. He was the first to be created. Then God, through Christ, made all things. This is the heresy of Arianism. This view is to be despised and rejected by Christians. Most Christians realize this, and that is why they do not like any association of Christ with Michael the Archangel.

Angels do not have the power to create. They cannot speak planets into existence or create millions of forms of life on them. Angels are not to be worshipped. The fact that Jehovah's Witnesses worship another Jesus who was created makes their worship of this other Jesus idolatry.

But let's not throw the baby out with the bathwater simply because a false view of Christ and Michael exists. We must fully reject the false view, which is what we will do right now. Ready? Please take a deep breath; now, let's toss out Arianism and remove it from our thoughts. It's gone! Whew, that is a relief.

SDA's View of Michael the Archangel.

Seventh-day Adventists correctly identify Christ as Michael the Archangel and maintain the truth that Christ is Jehovah God, and that Christ was not created or made. However, in her book Patriarchs and Prophets, the Seventh-day Adventist false prophet, Ellen G. White, teaches that Satan rebelled because of issues relating to the Ten Commandments and the Sabbath. I do not want the reader to confuse what I am saying in this chapter with what Seventh-Day Adventists teach about the rebellion in heaven. Now, we can proceed.

The Voice of the Archangel

1 Thessalonians 4:16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Paul is quoting from Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 25:30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

- The Lord Himself shall do this 1 Thessalonians 4:16
- Whose voice is it? The archangel. 1 Thessalonians 4:16

- Whose voice is it? The LORD. Jeremiah 25:30.

Don't get misled into thinking an archangel means an angel. It simply means the leader of the angels. In Joshua, this title is given as Captain of the Host of Heaven. Who was clearly Jehovah God himself, the same as the "angel" that appeared from the midst of the bush that burned but was not consumed in the time of Moses? In both instances, Moses and Joshua were commanded to remove their sandals because the ground they were standing on was holy. The "Angel that appeared from the midst of the bush" and the Captain of the Host of Heaven were not created angels; they were God Himself. In the same way, the Lord himself comes with a shout, and it is his voice, the voice of the leader of all the angels in heaven, that raises the dead, emphasizing the LORD's power and authority.

Michael is the Messiah's name Before He was Born in Bethlehem.

Before Christ was born of a virgin in Bethlehem, his name was Michael. Michael is the archangel, the captain of the host in heaven. Michael and the Messiah in Daniel are the same divine being. Christ was not created; He existed eternally in the past. Christ is the Prince of princes, the only begotten son of God. Christ is the angel of the Lord who appeared to Abraham, Jacob, Moses, and Joshua. God made all things through Christ. Unlike the angels, Christ, the only begotten son of God, is to be worshipped.

What sets Christ apart from the angels that he created is that:

- God made all things through Christ.
- Christ, the only begotten son of God, is to be worshipped.

Angels do not have the power to create. Angels cannot speak and make planets and life on them. Angels are not to be worshipped.

The key difference between what Jehovah's Witnesses teach and what the Bible teaches is that Christ is eternal from everlasting to everlasting. Christ is almighty. Christ is our creator. Christ was not created or made; Christ is Jehovah God. All we are saying here is that before his birth, the Messiah was not called Jesus; he had another name, and that name was Michael. The Messiah was named Jesus for the first time in Bethlehem. On the new earth, he is given a new name. We will call him by his new name, not by Jesus or Michael.

Pardon me for spelling it out like that. I had to clarify and distinguish what I was saying: 'Michael is the Messiah, the Prince in Daniel,' which is totally separate from what Jehovah's Witnesses teach. I probably should spell out how this is different from the Catholic view of Michael because they teach Michael is a created angel, too. But let's not go off on rabbit trails. Let's stay focused on this chapter topic, which is why Satan rebelled.

We need to point out another fact, that the rebellion happened about the same time the earth was created six thousand years ago. How do we know that? Because Satan and the other fallen angels were cast down to the earth.

Luke 10:18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

Revelation 12:4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

As I mentioned a moment ago, the Bible is full of microdata, and we have to really pay attention to it in order to discover gems and revelations within its pages. The fact that Satan was cast to the earth means his fall from heaven was not millions of years before the earth was made. At best, it could have happened before it was made while the Earth was still formless and void in Genesis 1. But I think his fall happened after creation, and here is why. It explains WHY Satan rebelled. In fact, it explains a lot of things.

Above the Ark of the Covenant, there are two cherubim angels. One is on the right, and the other one is on the left. The Bible repeatedly says in the New Testament that Christ is located at the Right hand of God.

So here is what I believe happened. Why Satan Rebelled:

1. God made heaven and the angels first.
2. The angels watched, as Christ made everything during creation week, including Adam and Eve.
3. After creation was finished, Christ returned, sat at God's right hand, and rested during the 7th day from creating everything.
4. All the angels in heaven worshiped Christ.
5. Lucifer, a covering cherubim, sat at God's left hand.
6. Lucifer could not create anything.
7. There were no angels who worshipped Lucifer.
8. Lucifer, lifted by pride and vanity, became jealous that Christ could create and was worshipped by the angels.
9. Lucifer campaigned among all the hosts in heaven, claiming that he deserved to be worshiped as God in the same way Christ was worshipped.
10. 1/3 of the angels joined in Lucifer's rebellion, fell, and worshipped Lucifer, a created angel.
11. Michael and his angels, the 2/3 that only worshipped Christ, warred with the rebelling angels, causing them to fall from heaven and be cast to the earth.
12. The next thing Lucifer did was appear as a serpent to Eve in the Garden of Eden in Genesis 2. From this moment on, Lucifer was called Satan, that old Dragon and serpent—the Prince of this earth, Usurper of Adam's inheritance. The father of all lies a murderer from the beginning, the antichrist who wants to be worshipped as God in the temple of God, and the father of all those who perish on Judgment Day.

This explains why Satan tempted Christ, offering him all the kingdoms of the world if he would fall and worship him during the temptation in the wilderness. What was Christ's response? "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."

- Christians worship Jesus Christ and serve him as the LORD.
- Those who receive the Mark of the Beast receive the image of the Beast, worship the Beast, worship the Antichrist, and receive his number in their foreheads and their hand.

The whole issue is over worship. The church's martyrs confessed Jesus is the Lord and refused to worship Caesar and the Pope as a god and were killed. Those who received the Mark of the Beast over the past 2000 years have sworn an oath of submission to the Caesars and the Popes, serving them as a god. Christ commanded us, saying, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."

What the angels that fell from heaven with Satan and those who receive the mark of the beast have in common is they worship someone, or something other than God, as a god, in the temple of God, and serve someone or something other than Christ as a god.

By the way, the reformers taught that the mark of the beast is the oath to submit to the Pope. This is clearly said in many of the commentaries on Revelation 13, freely available to everyone in most Bible apps.

The martyrs were faced with a choice.

1. Recant and take an oath to submit to the Pope (the mark of the beast).
2. Or die a brutal martyr's death.

Only those who took the oath to submit to the Caesars and then the Pope were issued a license from the state, giving them permission to buy and sell. Those who refused to take an oath to submit to the Caesars and then later the Pope annually were persecuted and often killed.

May God's grace and peace be with you.

In Jesus Christ's name. Amen.

Mr. David Michael Curtis
